

Scott Snider

Scott Snider received a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Political Science and History from the University of British Columbia in 1989. Until 2001, Scott worked for the Insurance Corporation of British Columbia. During his eleven years there he managed a large and complex caseload of litigated personal injury claims. Scott worked closely with both plaintiff and defense counsel to maintain an effective working relationship to negotiate the settlement of thousands of bodily injury matters.

In 2001, in addition to running his own Independent Adjuster firm (2001-2006), Scott completed the Continuing Legal Education Advanced Civil Mediation course; he subsequently completed the Canadian Dispute Resolution Corporation's Personal Injury Mediation Practicum. He has participated in thousands of hours of successful mediation, including complex multi party cases, over the past 19 years and been a member in good standing with the B.C. Mediation Roster Society since 2001. Scott conducts in excess of 200 mediations per year.

Scott is a huge proponent of mediation and its benefits to all parties involved. In early 2020 he has become heavily involved in conducting mediation virtually (using Zoom technology) in addition to the traditional in person mediations.
